"When Jesus chose and called the Apostles, He did not think of them as separate from one another, each one on his own, but together, because they were to stay with Him, united, like a single family." Pope Francis

Dear Parents and carers,

Welcome back after what I hope was a restful half-term. It has been a busy week again in school which started with a Corpus Christi celebration assembly where the children reflected on how God's love for us is never ending. I do hope they have been extra helpful at home as many of the children said this is how they share God's love with their families! St Rita's Celebration of the Word was lovely—thank you to all the parents and carers who joined us. Super reading and acting St Rita; and beautiful pictures of your family.

We ended the week with a Florence Nightingale workshop— you may have seen many small nurses in the playground— and D-Day 80 assembly. I include a quote from the Catholic Bishop of the Forces, Paul Mason, who said, 'Connection with the past is fundamental to such an occasion, taking hold of our history, owning it, for fear it may disappear into the mists of the collective memory. We have a common identity as the lucky generations who had our freedoms protected, paid for by the brave men who stormed the beaches that day.' Our assembly remembered those who gave their lives for others.

Best wishes, Mrs Christoforou

Wednesday's Word

FAMILY

Jesus went back home with his disciples, and such a large crowd had gathered that they did not even have chance to eat. When Jesus' family heard what he was doing, they set out to take him away with them, convinced he was out of his mind. Some teachers of the law came down from Jerusalem and were disapproving and complaining about him. They falsely and foolishly claimed that Jesus' powers were not from God, but that he was using evil powers to heal people. Then Jesus' concerned mother and brothers arrived outside and sent in a message asking for him to come out to them. A crowd was sitting round Jesus at the time the message was passed to him, 'Your mother and brothers and sisters are outside asking for you.' Jesus replied, 'Who is my mother and who are my brothers?' And looking round at those sitting around him, he said, 'These people are also my mother and my brothers and sisters. Anyone who does the will of God is my brother or sister or mother.'
