

	Autumn 1	Autumn 2	Spring 1	Spring 2	Summer 1	Summer 2
Reception	All About Me Grandparents – how their childhood was different to ours	Black History Week Stories from other cultures Djembe drumming Celebrations Past and present in the chns own lives	Space Who needs a rocket? Books about space e.g Whatever Next –Jill Murphy	Using Artefacts Comparing artefacts used for food preparation from the past with present day. Wheat, flour, videos of windmills, food production.)	Easter RE Focus – the Easter story (Jesus Christ - Significant people in history)	Stories from the past Inviting older older generation to read stories or books such as My Naughty Little Sister
Year 1	Toys Changes in living memory Use of appropriate language and questions about artefacts			Antarctic Roald Amundsen A study of a significant individual	The Great Fire of London Samuel Pepys Events beyond living memory that are significant nationally	Grace Darling Life of a significant individual
Year 2		Florence Nightingale and Mary Seacole A study of a significant individual Contributions to British Society		Amy Johnson History of our local area Comparison to Bessie Coleman		Castles Ann Boleyn History of local area
Year 3			Stone to Bronze Age Dwellings Farming Archaeologists Mary Anning	Bronze to Iron Age Bronze Age religion Iron Age Hill forts Boudicca		Ancient Greeks A study of Greek life and achievement on the western world
Year 4	Elizabeth I A study beyond 1066 Changing power of monarchs A local history study			The Roman Empire Invasion of UK Romanisation of Britain	Anglo Saxon The Fall of the Roman Empire Anglo Saxon art and culture
Year 5	Victorians A study beyond 1066 Theme: Crime and punishment Lord Shaftesbury	Vikings Struggle for the Kingdom of England Edward the confessor			Ancient Egyptians Achievements of early civilisations

Year 6			WWII Blitz Air Raids Propaganda Gurka Soldiers	WWII A Significant turning point in History Battle of Britain VE Day	Mayan Civilisation Achievements of early civilisations
---------------	--	--	---	---	---	--

